Gospel Commentary on John 21:-1-14

Come and have breakfast' How simply and sensitively Jesus deals with us! He knows our needs and our hunger. He knows too that we can only manage the revelations of the divine in small portions. I could do well before my daily breakfast to listen to the Lord speaking my name and saying 'Come and have breakfast.' Imagine him serving me, if not with bread and fish, perhaps with a muffin and coffee! I begin to notice that through the day he continues to serve me what I need. How does Peter feel in this scene? Somewhere in the back of his mind he sensed where that catch of fish had come from. Surely now his heart breaks open in repentant love when he is treated so kindly by the person he had betrayed? Am I open to God's kindly care which picks me gently up when I have fallen? Peter is lost, floundering. He feels that he is a failure at what he usually does well. Can I identify with him sometimes? But Peter is open to another voice which he dimly recognises, but not quite. He does what is suggested to him.

May Rosary: Each night during the month, in Our Lady of Fatima Oratory, the Rosary will be prayed at 9 p.m. I appeal to you all to come out, as many as possible—so that the Oratory will be far too small!! Will you do that for our Blessed Mother during her special month?
